THE SMITH TESTIMONIAL.

Every tribute of praise and of esteem which the following papers accord to the Rev. James Smith, for 33 years Scotch Pastor in this city, we most fully endorse. A man so generally liked and esteemed, by people of every denomination, is not often met with; and we attribute this to his usefulness being superior to his zeal. For 33 long years we have met this worthy gentleman, we may say, in every road of life, toiling and doing good; and but that in the papers subjoined everything is so well and so fully set forth, we should certainly offer some more biographical remarks.

The British community in the River Plate is, when compared with other nationalities, relatively speaking, small; yet the list of subscribers to this fund, which we give at foot, whether judged by the names that figure on that list, or by their various nationalities, creeds and persuasions, or by the gross total of the amount contributed, is, after all, the most eloquent tribute of respect paid to the endeared name of this much-respected Pastor.

Perhaps the most pleasing feature is, that Mr. Smith, after sojourning a while in his native land, will return to this country to close his chapter amongst his old friends.

Strong, hearty and vigorous, his years do not leave much trace on him; and we believe another generation of schoolboys from the Scotch School will come to the front and be managers of business houses before his people will have to make for him a grave where the gorgeous setting-sun rays of a useful, well-spent life meet, and give the true promise of a bright and happy morrow.

The following are the several speeches delivered last Thursday at the presentation of the Testimonial to the Rev. James Smith:—

Mr Methven, the Chairman, said:—

Ladies and Gentlemen.

You are all aware of the object that brings us here to night, viz, to present our respected Clergyman and mutual friend the Revd. James Smith with a token of our esteem and gratitude for his constant and never-failing attention, to us as a congregation and to the community in general. The simplest manner in which I can discharge my duty towards the meeting will be to call upon the gentlemen whom the Committee have appointed to step forward and begin the business of the evening.

Mr. Dodds said:

Mr. Chairman

Ladies and Gentlemen

The present interesting ceremony of presenting our Testimonial to the Rev. James Smith, marks another epoch in the history and growth of this church, by the removal of another of her Venerable Landmarks who has guarded her Borders for the last 33 years, so faithfully and so well.

This Church, although planted amidst many discouragements by his zealous and learned predecessor, the late Rev. Dr. Brown, has nevertheless expanded on all sides, and like the small grain of mustard seed when cast into the ground has shot out her great branches, and has been to many a footsore, wayworn, Zionward traveller, as the "shadow of a great rock in a weary land."

Our faith in God's overruling providence assures us, that wherever a great and good work is to be done, he raises up the instrumentality for executing his own sovereign will, in his own good time and way, and we all rejoice with the Rev. Mr Smith, that he has been chosen in the ways of Divine providence, and set as a watch over our Zion, to tell the towers thereof and to mark well her palaces, that we might tell to another generation yet to come, that this God is our God, for ever and ever.

Mr Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen. We have met this evening to do honour to him whom God has highly honoured, and I feel it a high privilege that I am thus permitted to offer my humble testimony to his worth, I have been associated with him in many of his labours, from my earliest manhood; I have marked him well and have benefitted much by his precept and example. I have watched him when his labours were most abundant and arduous, when he followed his ever migratory flock, in his founding of churches, and providing for his countrymen the only means of grace that has ever been placed within their reach, over the vast plains of the pampa.

I can remember with him many a hard ride of 20 leagues a day, when the pelting storm, nor the burning rays of the sun stayed him not, in carrying out his life's great work, till three other churches had sprung from the parent stem, and four other zealous Ministers of the Gospel had been associated with him, in proclaiming the joyful sound, till, under God's blessing his efforts have been crowned with a success permitted only to few. And now, our simple and earnest service and heartstirring psalmody, "Those Songs that once did Sweet in Zion Glide" are re-echoed from the blue mountain peaks of Azul and Tandil, reverberate along the picturesque shores of Laguna de los Padres, and are listened to with delight in the deep glens and on the fertile plains of Bahia Blanca.

So close has been my intimacy with the Rev. Mr Smith, and so fast our friendship that I could tell of many an episode in his poem of life, many a stirring event by flood and field, and many a tussle tough, when Greek met Greek, with Scotsman's stubborn will, but I must not detain you.

Like most other men who have accomplished much, he has been blessed with orgauising powers of a high order, firmness of purpose, with much amiability of disposition, and much of the 'ingenium perfervidum Scotorum,' which sweeps from its path all opposing obstacles. He has never courted the bubble reputation, and yet in the exercise of his sacred calling, he has gained a universal popularity that has fallen to the lot of few.

He retires from the responsibilities of his charge, with his eye undimmed, nor his natural strength abated, and will revisit the scenes of his youth, the "Land of Brown Heath aud Shaggy Wood," for a short season of rest, which he has so well earned, and so richly deserves; and if God spare him will return among us, to spend and be spent in his Master's Service. "Such is the man whom God delighteth to honour," and in parting with him now, we assure him that our warmest sympathies and affection go with him, and

"Our warmest wish for him, to heaven is daily sent,
"That he be ever blest with health and peace, and sweet content."

Mr Methven said:—

I have in my possession a small address which my esteemed friend Mr. Drysdale had prepared for this event, but he had to leave for England sooner than he expected. At same time and in accordance with your Committee I think it should be read, and with your permission call on Dr. Alston to do so.

Address of Thomas Drysdale Esq., intended to have been delivered at the meeting held for presenting the Testimonial to the Rev. James Smith; read by Dr. Alston:

My Dear Friends,

Change is the natural condition of everything under the Sun, and we are forcibly reminded of this great truth this evening, for we are met to commemorate one of the most sacred events in the history of a Church, a severance of the tie of responsibility between a Minister of the Gospel and his flock among whom a life's labour has been spent so faithfully and so well, to assure Mr. Smith of our attachment to him, to seal that attachment by a tangible token.

Those who like myself have known Mr. Smith for a long series of years have the clearest and best conception of what manner of man he is. As a preacher, Mr. Smith has always been faithful to the great central doctrine of the Cross of Christ. For the long period of 33 years, in the fulness of his large heart, he has named the Saviour and scattered the seed of the Gospel. Not a few of those who sat under his Ministry are now in the Church Triumphant above, and how many of them have been saved, through his instrumentality is known only to God.

As a Pastor it is perhaps impossible to speak of him in terms of exaggeration; I never knew him to be surpassed in his fulness of visitation, or in the conscientious and painstaking manner in which he carried it on. At morning, noon and night, under the blazing sun, and in the face of the storm, Mr. Smith has been up and away at the call of duty. In season, of 'Epidemia' even when personal danger was involved, when many failed, he pressed on in the discharge of duty without a single halt. As a friend faithful and true, he stands in the foremost rank and if others approach him he is in the front rank still and by no means excelled; his life has been singularly disinterested, always seeking the good of others with whom in the ways of Providence he was associated; amiable, and pre-eminently unselfish, he has been as a son to the aged, a father to the young, and a Brother to all.

But my friends I must now turn from you, to the addressing of a few words to Mr. Smith himself:

Rev. and dear Sir, servant of God in the ministry of his dear Son Jesus Christ. It affords me much pleasure to address you, as one of those who have benefited much and long by your good words. Acceptable in Visitation and Consistent in life, I address you in my own name and in the name of this religious community in words which come from a good heart, and from wise lips.

"Better is the end of a thing than the beginning." This has been abundantly verified in the career of one who went forth and wept, bearing precious seed, but returned rejoicing bringing back his sheaves. We all wish and pray that as far as we can speak of length of days, we may long enjoy the benefit of your wise counsels. It is at the same time verily true that your work is nearly done, and your reward draws nigh. We wish you to feel assured that you have not laboured in vain and for nought—but you have drawn around you many hearts, and aided many to enter the Golden gates where your own palm awaits you.

We doubt not that you are well assured of our warm attachment towards you. The not inconsiderable sum which has been collected for your personal use, amounting to $235,000, is one of the many proofs of this, and you will be pleased to hear, that it is not only the offering of your own flock but of many who do not belong to your own Church. We are perfectly united and cordial in relation to this present, and we believe that our mark of affection is much deserved and well earned, by the man to whom the honour falls. I must not, however, longer detain you and the meeting. And now, dear Sir, believe me when I say that the devout wish of us all is, that you may be blessed with good health for the enjoyment of that which will be placed in your hands. And that in the end you may have a reward, compared with which the wealth of the whole world is vain. Many a time have your lips opened in benediction over us. Now in the name of us all, my lips open in benediction over you,—

The Lord bless thee and keep thee, The Lord make his face to shine on thee and be gracious unto thee, The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

Mr. Bell said—

Mr. Chairman.

Ladies and Gentlemen.

Doubtless you have all listened, as I have done, with much pleasure to the very able and eloquent addresses, that have fallen from the lips or dropped from the pen of the Gentlemen who have preceeded me, and to the very flattering manner in which reference has been made to the many amiable and sterling qualities of our much respected and esteemed Pastor. And while I believe that in the case of the Revd. Mr. Smith, as well as in that of most right thinking men, a consciousness of having done one's duty is its own best reward, it cannot fail to be gratifying to find that, while endeavouring to discharge these duties, which at times may necessitate the putting on one side of one's own inclinations, these efforts are appreciated by those for whom they are made.

It must, therefore, I say, be very gratifying to him to receive upon the occasion of his retiring from the sacred and solemn position which he has for so many years occupied towards this congregation, so many proofs of well merited appreciation and esteem, not only from the members of his own congregation, but also from all creeds and nationalities, from the young as well as from the old.

Our worthy Pastor's large heartedness goes with him wherever he goes. Is there a case of sickness, no matter of how dangerous a nature? Is there a case of distress, no matter how far off? Is there a prayer wanted at the bedside of the dying? there is and always has been the place where you have found him. No matter to what country, or to what church they belong, it is sufficient for our excellent Pastor to know that they possess a soul, that must if possible be saved. In one word, he, like His Great Master while on earth, goes about continually doing good.

Ladies and Gentlemen you cannot have failed to notice the very remarkable interest our worthy Pastor has always taken in the Lambs of his flock, these have always had his special care, and I am sure it is very pleasing to him to see so many of those beaming young faces here this evening, to do honour and to witness the honour done to, their dear Pastor. Times have certainly changed, and those of us, (I think I see here a number of my contemporaries) who from childhood have looked up to the Revd. Mr. Smith first as our teacher, in the then, as now flourishing Scotch School; afterwards as our counsellor, Pastor and friend can, I am sure, look back with much gratitude and pleasure to the many kind words and good advice we have received from our old and esteemed friend, from I might almost say youth to age.

Change, I think we have been told this evening, is "the natural condition of everything under the Sun, and without wishing to dispute this truism, I can say that though changed in years, the Revd. Mr. Smith's school boys are the same to him to-day as they were to him then. Personally as one of his pupils, I am James now, as I was 33 years ago, and if I am not mistaken, there are a great many more Jameses, Johns and Williams here to-night, who like myself are no longer very young, but who are as proud as I am of being addressed by him by our christian names.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen, the rising generation of Buenos Aires have much cause to be grateful to Mr Smith for the many marks of attention and kindly interest taken in their welfare, and although I know full well that it has ever been a source of deep regret and sorrow to our worthy Pastor that so comparatively few young men attend this church, still, wherever the young men are to be met, whether it be in the busy streets of our cities, behind the counter, or at the desk, in the merchant's office or at the bank, in the field, or at the plough, no matter where, he has always a kind word of encouragement and advice to offer.

In their Athletic sports, Cricket or Boating he has ever taken a lively interest, and wherever the Scotch School Room has been fequired for the holding of any Committee or General Meeting in connection with any of these sports, it has been readily placed at the disposal of the young men, and I know for a fact, that whenever it was possible, he by his presence encouraged these manly sports.

The Revd. Mr. Smith I maintain, touched a chord in the hearts of many of the young men in this city and country, who even do not belong to this congregation, but by whom he is universally respected and esteemed, and I venture to say that a word in reason from Mr Smith has often done more good, especially in the case of young men, than many a long sermon would have done. Our worthy friend it is true, will shortly retire from the high and honourable position he has held for the last 33 years as Pastor of this congregation, but we are glad to know, that after a short sojourn in Europe, he hopes to return once more to go in and out amongst us as heretofore, and I think I can safely say that no one will welcome him back more gladly than the young men of Buenos Aires.

Mr Runciman said—

Doubtless this public expression of our sincere appreciation of the many good and noble qualities of our most worthy pastor must be gratifying to him, at the same time we cannot but feel that no words which have been spoken or may be spoken this evening can in any way add lustre to the name of the Rev. James Smith.

The Scotch Community may well feel proud of their pastor, a man greatly beloved, and justly respected by all, and it certainly needs no eulogium from us to proclaim his goodness, charity and kindly consideration for everyone.

Mr Smith has ever been a friend to the friendless, and we all know how many mourners would have been deprived of the comforting prayer over the remains of some dear departed one, had it not been for his truly christian spirit in being always willing to officiate when called upon to do so.

In all matters of public interest, Mr Smith has ever been zealous in lending his valuable assistance, and the British Hospital owes him a debt of deep gratitude for the great interest he took in former days in collecting for it. As also for his kindness in visiting the patients.

Mr Smith can certainly look back with great satisfaction on the many years of much usefulness he has spent in this country; and as long as a Scotch Church exists in Buenos Aires, the name of the Rev. James Smith must ever be associated with it.

In resigning his charge, as he is shortly about to do, we must all feel that he has well earned the rest which he is about to take, and it must be a great satisfaction to him to leave St. Andrew's congregation in such worthy hands as those of his successor.

I may mention that during my recent visit to Scotland, I was invited by Dr Gray, the Chairman of the Colonial Missions, to attend the Annual Meeting in order to give them information about our church here, and which I was much pleased to do. Alluding to Mr Smith's resignation I mentioned that he had most generously declined to entertain the idea of any retiring allowance, that he had given up the whole emoluments of the church to his successor, and this fact was received by the numerous clergymen present with pronounced applause, and we must all feel that this action, on the part of Mr Smith, is worthy of the man.

In saying that we wish Mr Smith many years of good health and happiness, that he may have a pleasant trip to the mother country, and be spared to come back and live amongst us, we express the desire of all present.

Mr Methven said:—

Reverend and Esteemed Sir.

As chairman I am privileged and called upon by the community to present you with this tangible token of our sincerity; and that you be long spared and blessed with health and happiness is the sincere and earnest desire of us all.

After the presentation of the illuminated address by Mr Runciman, the Rev. James W. Fleming spoke as follows—

Mr Smith, I have much pleasure in presenting you with this gift from the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School. We have found it difficult to choose something that would be useful to you, but we hope we have succeeded; and that this Travelling Bag with Dressing Case will not only be useful but will even be a comfort to you in your wanderings. We trust it will remind you that you leave behind you many warm hearts. We shall not forget you when you are away from us. And we not only hope you will return to us strengthened and refreshed but that you will live to see all those who have contributed to this present, grow up into a useful and christian manhood and womanhood.

I am proud to have been chosen to present you with this token of our regard for you, and in resigning your place at the head of the Sunday School, I am sorry your mantle has fallen on so unworthy shoulders.

The Rev. James Smith on rising to return thanks for the Testimonial and gift, which had just been presented to him, said that it was a matter of great regret that a sense of duty should compel him in any shape to part with a congregation to which he was so strongly attached, and from which he had received so much kindness. He felt, however, that declining years and the interest of the congregation, necessitated such a step. He felt also, that he could take this step all the more freely, as he was sure that the interests of the congregation would be well cared for by his young and talented successor. Coming here in much weakness, he could have done little had he not both in town and country been surrounded by excellent God-fearing men, who assisted him in every possible way in the discharge of the arduous duties to which he was called. Of these, many had gone to their rest and reward, and only a few remained. Of that few, one who ever held a foremost place amongst them was wanting by causes beyond his control. Being unable to attend, he left behind him those kind and thrilling words which Dr. Alston has read in your hearing. To these men, and those influenced by their example, he owed any success attendant upon his labours. He felt gratified that the splendid testimonial presented to him was not the gift of the congregation alone, but was subscribed for by all sections of the English-speaking community. From all these sections he had received many marks of kindness for which he felt grateful. The natives of the country also had shown to him no small amount of kindness. He had crossed their lines, and ridden amongst them in times of revolution; but from the soldier to the officer, from the gaucho of the Pampas to the Governor or President, he met with nothing but civility and kindness. The handsome gift from the Sunday School he valued very highly. The children were the lambs of the flock, and he looked upon the teachers and members of the choir as in some measure, members of his family, as they assisted him in two most important departments of the work of the church. It would afford him great pleasure after a few months rest, to return again to those to whose kindness he was so much indebted, and to be a volunteer in that noble army where he had once been Commander-in-Chief. He concluded by cordially thanking all who had taken an interest in the movement, and wishing them all temporal and spiritual mercies.

THE INDIANS AGAIN.

The "No More Indians" dream was rudely dispelled yesterday morning by the telegrams we give at foot, received by the Campaña and the Prensa. While General Villegas and his men have well done the work cut out for them in the far South, the savages are at their old game at our very doors, for Trenque-Lauquen is virtually nearer to Buenos Aires now than Azul was ten years ago. We suppose the War Office will tell us who is responsible for the safety of the frontier where this last desperate foray has occurred. In any case, the totally unexpected catastrophe must have a bad effect on the price and stocking of frontier lands. It is a grim comment on the advocates of rose-water treatment for the Indians to find the famous Cacique Pincen, who was liberated by the Government and comfortably provided for on one of Mr Cambaceres's estancias, at the head of this last atrocity. We fear that many another Expedition to the Desert will be necessary before frontier estancieros can consider themselves safe.

The following are the telegrams:—

Lincoln, 23d. 6.35 p.m

Yesterday, at some distance outside Trenque-Lauquen, several German and other estancieros who were driving cattle out to a large new estancia on the frontier, were suddenly attacked by 50 Indians. A fight ensued. The Indians were well led and fought courageously, wounding 15 and killing others of their opponents. They then rode off with over 3,000 cows, to the desert.

The loss of the Indians is not known, as they rode off at full speed.

Commissary Sustayta, of Fort Lavalle, with the Rural Police and some neighbours, started at midnight in pursuit of the raiders, but it is not thought they can overtake them, the distance being so great and horses so scarce.

The leader of the marauders is said to be the ex-Cacique Pincen.

I guarantee that this will take 50 per cent off the price of every league of land in Trenque-Lauquen. The whole partido is alarmed.

Lincoln 23d.

A "chasque" arrived last night from Lavalle announcing that the Indians surprised Trenque-Lauquen. It is calculated that they killed 15 or 20 persons.

Another account says that the massacre took place at Lualauquen, 22 leagues farther out than Trenque-Lauquen. The savages surrounded Mr McClymont's new estancia there. Two peons of the estancia, who escaped wounded, brought the news to Trenquelauquen. One of the Messrs McClymont, at the head of his peones, defended the estancia, but the marauders had taken all his horses, and he had very little ammunition left, with no hope or way of getting more.

The police advised the Commander at General Acha to send troops to cut off the Indians' retreat, while the police of all the neighbouring partidos would attack them in front.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our Own Correspondent.)

FROM DIXIELAND.

Good Friday, March 23, 1883.

The atrocious outrage committed in the Spinney, at the Fishery, is still a mystery. The English newspapers, such as the Globe, the Times, the Morning Post, and, of course, the Daily Telegraph, have ceased to recommend a general massacre of the Irish in England, although their violence, incited by the first report of the attempted assassination of Lady Florence Dixie, has actually had a certain effect in Liverpool and Birkenhead, where highly moral and church-going men of business have gone the length of dismissing from their employment all Irish workmen. In certain places, where cooler heads prevail, such as the House of Commons, the Police Office at Scotland Yard, and the editor's room, at the office of medical journals, Lady Florence Dixie's account of this new and terrible Irish atrocity is either openly laughed at, as in Parliament, or discredited, as at the Police Office, or scientifically analysed as a curious psycho-physical phenomenon, as in the pages of the Lancet. In the meanwhile Lady Florence adheres to her original statement, that she was attacked by two men, dressed as women, in dark clothes and armed with long knives, and that she was thrown down, that her mouth was filled with mould, to prevent her crying for help, and that only the steel in her corset and the assistance of her dog "Hubert" prevented the stabs of the assassins from proving mortal. She protests indignantly against the impoliteness of the gentlemen in the House of Commons, who laughed when the Ministers were interrogated on the subject; she thinks that if "the Government let the matter slide, they only incite to more crimes of this sort." After writing two long letters, she threatens to treat all further inuendoes with contempt. Sir Beaumont Dixie gives entire credit to the statements made by his wife, and it must be mentioned as the only corroboration of her account that has yet appeared that the butler of Colonel Harford, living in the neighbourhood, did see two men dressed as women and in dark clothes, suddenly appear as he was walking about the time of the reported outrage on the banks of the Thames, near the Fishery. Against this testimony, we have the assurance of the police that no trace can be found of such men; that in the garden where the outrage was reported to have occurred there are no signs of a struggle—that the dog "Hubert" has not a hair of his coat disordered—that the "people in the yellow cart," the Guardsman and his sweetheart who were dimly seen by Lady Florence during her struggle, have all turned up and been questioned without any result; and that, finally, although there are cuts in Lady Florence's gloves, the cuts are curiously alike and if her stays do show signs of stabs, it is singular that the cut in the jersey she wore underneath her corset, does not quite correspond with the direction of the supposed punctures. Finally, come the unsentimental medical journals, pouring into our ears all the modern instances of hallucination arising from hysteria in female patients. Of course, these wise people may be mistaken, and the men-women in dark clothes with long knives and livid faces, who were good enough to stab Lady Florence Dixie just hard enough to frighten her and injure her stays without drawing blood, may eventually be discovered.

In the meanwhile, the anti-Irish and anti-Liberal English newspapers must feel in a state of exceeding shame and humiliation for the ferocity with which they seized the occasion not only to abuse the Land League leaders but to excite an animal hatred of the Irish in the breasts of the English lower classes. So far, this lower classes in England, whilst in common with all friends of the Irish nation they loathe the wickedness, perversity and childish impatience of the Irish demagogy, have shown an example of thoughtful forbearance to the better-clad and "boss" element amongst their fellow-countrymen. The first reports of the outrage upon Lady Florence Dixie, naturally created intense indignation in New York and the same loathing. Now that there are grave doubts as to the state of Lady Florence's nervous organisation, there will be a reaction in favour of the Egans, the Sheridans, the Walshe's, and even the O'Donovan Rossas, who some of them had already laughed at Lady Florence's tale, and better than some of us, they knew personally the Queensberry family, who, as they said, were always a little "cranky." Indeed, it must have been the knowledge of that fact which, in spite of the circumstantial account given of the event by Lady Florence led to doubt and laughter in the House of Commons, and a sudden change of opinion in the country generally. However, Sir Beaumont Dixie, the Queen, the ex-Empress Eugenie, as well as the Daily Telegraph, and others in the higher ranks of life and professing Conservative principle, to whom the reported outrage would have been a god-send in the present state of the Irish and English Land Question, are not satisfied as to Lady Florence's hallucination, nor is there yet any decided proof that they are wrong in their opinions.

It is fair to remember that the dynamite explosion in Whitehall remains to this moment as much a mystery as the affair at the Fishery. No clue has yet been discovered as to the perpetrators of the outrage; the only thing is that we know too well it did occur, whilst in the other case it is not the doers, but the fact of anything been done, which is in question. The report you may see in the Daily Telegraph of a supposed clue to the identification of the Whitehall miscreants is without foundation, and officially contradicted.

In general politics the topics of the day are Lord Dufferin's long despatch on Egyptian affairs, and the renewed rumours of Mr. Gladstone's retirement from active political life.

Lord Dufferin's anxiously looked-for despatch is characterised as the quintessence of sentimental politics. It is laid hold of by both parties as corroborative of their particular views. Lord Dufferin does say that "Egypt cannot be governed from London;" but, in truth, from his somewhat discursive and sentimental literary effort, it is difficult to find whether he means we are to annex Egypt or if we are to abandon it to native Government. In the latter, unsupported by foreign bayonets, he has evidently no faith; and I am afraid the gist of his despatch, which had been returned to him for revision and more careful consideration, is that Egypt must be permanently occupied and governed by an English resident, as India is governed, so that our cheap victories in the land of the Pharaohs will leave us a trouble and responsibility that recent statistics, in respect to the commercial value of the Suez Canal to this country, prove to be gratuitously incurred. It is sad to think that such is the dangerous legacy which after so brilliant a career in home politics our justly-beloved Premier, Earl Gladstane, or by whatever title he may be known in the House of Peers, will leave to England.

THE ROYAL SCANDAL.

Copenhagen, March 19,

I can positively contradict the statement which has appeared in Danish and foreign papers, that Professor Holm, of the Copenhagen University, would be charged with the publication of the documents relating to the Struensee and Queen Carolne Mataldi State trial. These documents are in the charge of Royal Archivist, and it will depend upon his report to the King how far they are still to be kept secret, or if the whole or part only will be published. I may add that I learned on the best authority that there remains not the shadow of a doubt of the culpable relations between Queen Caroline Mataldi and Struensee, whose conduct during the trial was mean and cowardly, he having at once confessed all, and compromised the unfortunate Queen.

In describing a new organ, a country editor says:—The swell died in delicious suffocation, like one singing a sweet song under the bed-clothes.

PROBABLE RETIREMENT OF MR. GLADSTONE.

Contrary to the expectation, it is now authoritatively stated that Mr. Gladstone will not visit Hawarden during the recess. An interview which took place on Thursday between a Chester correspondent and the Rector of Hawarden tends to confirm a rumour which will be received, if not with universal surprise, certainly with widespread regret. Replying on Thursday to a question as to whether there was any truth in the rumour that the Premier might ere long retire from official public life, the Rev. Stephen Gladstone said, "The rumour is quite in accordance with an idea he has entertained for a considerable time. He is of opinion that the old should make way for the young. He has long felt a wish to retire, and it may be that he now sees his way to retirement more clearly." Referring to the oft-repeated statement that Mr Gladstone would probably accept a peerage, the Rector of Hawarden said "That is all speculation. I cannot speak with any certainty or authority on the matter, but my opinion is that he will never take a seat in the House of Lords, having done all this work elsewhere."

EDITOR'S TABLE

Owing to the bad weather and some stevedor difficulty combined, the Senegale could not sail yesterday, but will leave this afternoon. So merchants, sweethearts, wives and others have time to add postscripts to their letters of yesterday. The passengers were all glad of the postponement, as the weather was frightfully cold and raw—a thorough winter's day—everybody sneezing and coughing, and red, white and blue about the nose. Seldom does the Clerk pitch us headlong from autumn into winter so suddenly and early as he has done this year.

Mr. Patrick Ham gave a most generous donation to the Starving Children in Ireland yesterday, and we have reason to think that the unfortunate little ones may count on further kind help.

The news from the frontier yesterday was of the very blackest. Very severe comments are made on the anomaly of the Indians being hunted across the Andes at Nahuel-Huapi while they are at their old game so much nearer home. It is more than probable that most of the marauders in this case are not Indians, but deserters and "gauchos malos." In any case, the public look to the War Office for explanation of this wretchedly old story.

We call the attention of all those interested, to an advertisement in reference to a meeting called by the Trustees of the Irish Convent and Orphanage for Friday, May 4th, when highly important matters will be discussed.

The departure of the Rev. James Smith for England is fixed for May 15th, per Royal Mail steamer.

In reference to the terrible accident on the Glasgow and Edinburgh Railway, the latest papers to hand say:—"Further inquiries show that between 20 and 30 persons suffered more or less by the collision. There were three killed on the spot and twelve severely injured. The killed were—John B. Halbert, a clerk, aged 15; Wm. Russell, a clerk, aged 15; and James McGreddon, carter, aged about 50. Mr. James Warnock, auctioneer, who was dangerously injured, died on Tuesday morning in the Royal Infirmary. Wood, the driver of the Edinburgh train, is in the same institution, and is watched by a policeman, it being considered that he is to blame for the accident."

A kind subscriber has favoured us with a picture of the famous but extinct Dodo. It is a frightfully ugly bird, but our naturalist subscribers will no doubt drop in to our Museum to have a look at it.

ON 'CHANGE.

April 24th 1883.

Patacon	25.00
Cedulas A	100½
Cedulas E	86
National Bank Shares	105⅝

In Cedulas the following sales were effected:—
4,000 Series A cash at 100½; 38,000 ditto for the 26th at 100½. 19,700 Series E cash at 86 o/o; 83,000 do for end of the month 86 o/o; 20,000 do May 31st at 86⅜, and in National Bank Shares 205 cash at 105½-105½-105½-⅜; 350 April 30th at 105⅜-105½; 400 May 31st at 106½-106⅝.
Another dull day on 'Change. The rise in Bank Shares commenced yesterday afternoon, gained further ground to-day, sellers holding out for higher rates which has had the effect of checking business. The market closes firm at 105⅜ for end of this month, and 106⅝ for May 31st. The large amounts taken up yesterday for Shares for the end of the month, have rather frightened the bears. Cedulas have ruled weak, sellers offering freely at quotations.
Afterhours business was somewhat brisker sales were: 10,000 Shares April 30th at 105⅜; 200 do April 30th at 105½; 300 do May 31st at 106⅜. 5,000 Cedulas E for to-morrow at 85⅝; 20,000 do E April 30th at 86.
We beg to call the attention of parties interested in land sales to the notice in another column of 21 leagues on the confines of Cordoba, to be sold by Messrs. Bullrich and Co., to-day. We have mentioned this sale before, and only wish to add with reference to the invasion of the Indians, that these camps are much more inside, and Indians have not been seen there for many years.
The sales at the ring were as follows:—
Cedulas—
For cash A 1,000 at 100½
For cash E 19,700 at 86
For April 26th A 30,000 at 100½

Mr. Waldino C. Ponze, auctioneer, sold in Caballito on Sunday last a casa quinta for the sum of 180,600. The base of the sale was $180,400⅗.
On Sunday the following land sales took place:—
A piece of land on the confines of Calle Purana, 50 yards deep at $600⅗ per yard.
Another plot, 30 yards deep, between Solis and Progreso, at $740.
Another in Calle Solis, between Armonia and Progreso, 30 yards deep, at $570⅗ per yard. Auctioneers Godoy & Gordella.
Auctioneer Eulogio Cuenca sold by order of the Mortgage Bank 106,000 square squares of land in Floresta; the prices varying from 5 to 11 reales the square yard. Buyers, Andres Soler, D. Ramon Burgos and D. Gaspar Pietranera.
Dr. Plaza, Minister of Foreign Affairs, returned yesterday from Cañuelas, where he was sojourning for the past few days.
The Police are at present engaged in following up some clues they have recently received, regarding the falsification of "Argentinos" at present in circulation. Great hope are entertained of catching the forgers.
Mr. Younger's Californian wind-mills are gaining a great reputation here. All who have seen them at work acknowledge that they are "the thing" for estancias where water has to be drawn. Mr. Schwartz by his "noria" and Mr. Younger by this mill have supplied a want long felt by our estancieros. There is at present one of these mills fitted up at the Empalme, Tres Esquinas, where anyone interested in them can see it work, by applying to Mr. Younger. Mr. Schmidt, of San Nicolas, has just ordered the largest one yet made here. It measures 10x12 and is capable of turning two flour stone grinders.

The Senegal postponed sailing yesterday, owing to some difficulty with the Capitania. She sails to-morrow at the usual hour.
A very important rumour, and we believe on good foundation, was circulated through the Bolsa during afterhours last evening. It was to the effect that the Government shortly intended decreeing the sale of a large tract of land on the banks of the Rio Negro.
The sales at afterhours were:—
Cedulas—
For April 30th E seller at 86
For May 31st E seller at 86⅜

91—CALLE MAIPU—91

Special adaptations have been made to meet the peculiar requirements of this country.
One of the most valuable features in these Ranges and Stoves, is, that each part is made interchangeable, and extra pieces will always be kept on hand; thus, after years of use should any part require to be repaired, it can immediately and easily be replaced be a new piece at a comparatively trifling cost.

Ranges and Stoves will be Exhibited in operation.

Estos magnificos campos situados en la Provincia de Cordoba, sobre la linea divisoria de la Provincia de Buenos Aires, distan solamente 7 leguas del Fortin Gainza y 2 leguas de los campos de los señores Salas y Cernadas que acaban de vender 25 leguas cuadradas a razon de diez mil pesos fuertes la legua y que se destinan a la formacion de un gran Establecimiento Rural, a mas del de los señores arriba nombrados y otros muchos allí existentes ya.

La calidad de las pastos es inmejorable para la cria de toda clase de ganados; lo demuestran los rodeos y majadas allí existentes que han venido huyendo de la seca que sufrian todos los Partidos del Norte y Oeste de la Provincia de Buenos Aires.

Ademas no debe perderse de vista la importancia y el porvenir que tienen estas tierras que debe atravesar el gran ferro carril Trasandino.

Debemos llamar muy especialmente la atencion de los compradores y pobladores de areas pequeñas, sobre las ventajas que tienen estos campos, que una vez vendidos seran entregados inmediatamente a los compradores, pues han sido vendidos judicialmente y aprobadas las mensuras, para cuyo efecto los vendedores ponen a disposicion de los interesados todas las referencias, y los títulos que se garanten de la manera mas eficaz, pues no hay protestas de ningun genero a su respecto.

La venta se efectuara sin base alguna, por lotes de media legua con opcion hasta cuatro leguas, y el pago se hara al escriturarse una quinta parte y el resto a uno, dos, tres y cuatro años de plazo, con pagare hipotecario e interes del 7 o/o (siete) anual.

NOMINA—De los nombres de los dueños de los Establecimientos que rodean estos campos.

Salas y Cernadas, Gregorio Torres, Atalliva Roca, Gral. Racedo, Belizario Hueyo, Pedro E. Funes, Gordard (antes J M Muñiz), Ambrosio Olmos, Alejandro Cernadas, Manuel Lynch y otros.

Remataremos con la base arriba fijada y condiciones que mas abajo se indican por orden terminante de su dueño.

Una area de campo situada en el partido de Bahia Blanca compuesta de 6114 hectareas igual a 2¼ leguas cuadradas.

Las posiciones que contienen son la estancia Las Merinas compuesta de una casa de material, figura de azotea con parapeto, techo de fierro con canaleta, con dos habitaciones de 6 vs. por 5, con cielo raso de madera y una co-cina, pozo, jaguel de riquisima agua, suficiente para dar de beber a dos majadas, que son las que existan allí, quinta y dos corrales con 1100 vs. de alambrado.

Un galpon techo de 2 aguas de fierro de canaleta de 17 vs. de largo por 5 de ancho.

La calidad del campo es inmejorable y reputada como la mejor de todo el partido, tiene fama y conocido por La Loma Amarilla.

El camino que va del Azul a Bahia cruza el campo y pasa cerca de las casas.

Sus linderos son por el Oeste Las Saladas del Doctor Ocantos (antes Joaquin Amado), al Este Ronaldson y Sheriff, Cuforglia y Bisca, al Norte Lastra y Scott y al Sud Severino Lopez y esta marcado en el plano Meineke con el nombre de Diego Dodda.

Las bases para la venta son 130⅔ hectareas o sean 450,000 ms/c mas o menos la legua, pudiendo el comprador seguir con la deuda a favor del Gobierno de la Provincia que importa $50,660⅔ pagaderos en seis anualidades de $ 59,14 4/9 que vencen el 18 de Diciembre de cada año.

Escusado nos parece demostrar las ventajas que ofrece una venta en estas condiciones; ademas no debe olvidarse que el gran ferro-carril del Sud, se acerca a pasos rapidisimos a su termino, que es el gran puerto de Bahia Blanca y que el 1º de Enero de 1884, iremos en tren a ese Emporio del Comercio y la Industria.

No hay en la Republica entera campos que puedan igualar los de este Partido, destinado a ser la California de la Republica Argentina.

Por planos y mas informes, ocurran a nuestra casa, Alsina 78.

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague, Coughs, Colds, &c.
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr Browne's. Vide Times, July 13th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.
REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests too often fatal diseases Diphtheria Fever, Crup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charming Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London. "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa, and Dysentery,
